

TWO BRIDES AT ONCE.

A Pretty Double Wedding at the Home of Mr. F. O. Robinson.

OTHER RICHMOND MARRIAGES.

A Popular Reporter Takes Bride. The Henning-Cottrell Wedding—Dr. Coleman and Miss Fortmann.

There was a beautiful double wedding at the residence of Mr. F. O. Robinson, No. 514 North Sixth street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The parlor, dined in room, and hallways were tastefully decorated in palms and ferns and white and yellow chrysanthemums, and amid these stand-lamps shed a soft glow of light, which added materially to the loveliness of the scene.

The marriages were those of Miss Emma C. Robinson to Mr. George S. Sipp, the popular career agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway in this city, and Miss Jessie M. Robinson to Mr. H. C. Williams, of New York. The brides are the daughters of Mr. F. O. Robinson, chief clerk in the motive-power department of the Chesapeake and Ohio, who, with his charming family, and three Richmond friends were present in elegant gowns of duchess lace and satin, with bouquets of lilies and roses, and carried bouquets of lilies and roses.

Dr. J. Y. Fair, of Grace-Street Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of friends of the young people, including Mr. F. O. Robinson, Mr. H. C. Williams, and Mr. S. Sipp, and a number of other guests.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Robinson, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Sipp, of New York. The brides were accompanied by their bridesmaids, Miss Anna Sipp, mother and sister of the groom, and Miss R. P. Robinson, sister of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Farby, assisted by Rev. C. B. Hening, of the Grace-Street Presbyterian church.

The wedding of Miss Estelle Wallcott and Mr. James Garrison Hening, which took place yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock, was witnessed by a large congregation of friends. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Farby, assisted by Rev. C. B. Hening.

THE PURE-FOOD EXHIBITION.

The Temple Banquet Hall a Scene of Beauty—Well Attended.

While St. Peter's Orchestra was playing "The Belle of the Village" at the Temple Banquet hall last night a throng of Richmond's best citizens poured into the large hall, and the Pure Food Exposition is being held.

The hall presented a most attractive scene. The artistically-decorated Temple Banquet hall was brilliantly lighted by electricity, and behind the large hall, and the Pure Food Exposition is being held.

CITY OF MANCHESTER.

GREAT REJOICING OVER THE RESULT OF TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

The New Law Worked Well—New Street-Railway Plans Proposed—Personal and Other Items.

Manchester Democrats are well pleased with the result of Tuesday's election, and the City Committee and other workers were warmly congratulated yesterday upon the work accomplished.

The Walton election-law, which made its debut Tuesday, has been praised by all parties except the Populists. The fact that the ward politicians and the leaders have been doing away with makes the new law particularly attractive to that class of voters who do not care to have a bumper undertake to show them how to cast their ballots.

The fairness of the election in this city and Chesterfield cannot be doubted, even by the most bitter partisan, and the defeated parties seem to have contented with the result. The constables who were on duty were gentlemen of the highest integrity, and even if opportunity had offered, they would not have taken advantage of the most ignorant.

Mr. C. D. Brookings and Miss Pauline Norvell will be married to-night at the home of the bride's parents, in the city of Manchester. Mr. Brookings is a popular attaché of the Manchester Street-Railway Company, and Miss Norvell is one of the most charming young ladies of the city.

NEW STREET-CAR SCHEDULE. Mr. Andrew Pizini thinks he has a scheme, which, if adopted in Manchester, will give more satisfaction to the people of the city than they are now enjoying. Mr. Pizini's idea is to run the Hull-street cars through to the city of Manchester.

Mr. Pizini's idea is to run the Hull-street cars through to the city of Manchester. He proposes to make a close connection with the Hull-street cars at Seventh and Hull, and every other car to connect with the Hull-street cars at Seventh and Hull.

HE TRIED TO KILL HIS WIFE.

The Bullet Goes Wide of Its Mark and Shoots His Brother-in-Law.

Joseph Heath, a farmer from Lancaster county, Va., shot David Gibson, a paper-hanger, residing at 1630 East Monument street, last night. The wound is not necessarily fatal, but may result seriously, as the bullet entered the chest and could not be found by probing.

The shooting of Gibson was accidental, as the bullet which struck him was intended for the wife of Heath, the man who did the shooting. It was an attempt to prevent the would-be murderer from accomplishing his purpose that caused Gibson to be shot.

Mrs. Heath is a sister of Mrs. Gibson. Two years ago she married Joseph Heath, and they went to live in Lancaster county, Va. She was formerly Margie Healey, and was from Virginia, though she had lived in Richmond for several years.

They were married two years ago last August. Heath is now about 40, and his wife 41. It is said that he was a violent man, and that he had been in the habit of getting on his wife's nerves.

Heath asked if his wife was staying with her sister, Mrs. Gibson, and when she told him that she was, he went to her home and shot her. Heath was arrested by the police, and is now in the city of Manchester.
